INTERNATIONAL PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION REPORT

International application No.
PCT/US03/22949V. Reasoned statement under Rule 66.2(a)(ii) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement*1. STATEMENT

Novelty (N)	Claims 1-30	YES
	Claims NONE	NO
Inventive Step (IS)	Claims 1-30	YES
	Claims NONE	NO
Industrial Applicability (IA)	Claims 1-30	YES

2. CITATIONS AND EXPLANATIONS

Claims 1-31 meet the criteria set out in PCT Article 33(2)-(3), because the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest the extrusion of a starch with a protein and/or fiber, where the starch is liquefied and preferably saccharified, and subsequently separated into two or more streams, each selectively comprising at least the liquefied starch, oil, protein, or fiber. Methods of extruding starch with additional protein or fiber components were known in the art (see US Patents 3,467,525), and methods for separating biosolids-containing liquid streams based upon their constituents were known in the art as well (see US Patents 6,106,673; 5,958,233; and 6,132,625). However, the combination of the two, with a starch-liquefaction step in between, was not taught or fairly suggested by the art. Products which have undergone an extrusion, starch liquefaction and stream separation step were also not taught or fairly suggested by the art.

Claims 1-31 meet the criteria set out in PCT Article 33(4), and thus possess industrial applicability because the subject matter claimed can be made or used in industry.
